

Maxims for Natural Disaster Preparation

If at first you don't succeed, skydiving is not for you.

The trouble with doing something right the first time is that nobody appreciates how difficult it was.

Paranoids are people too; they have their own problems. It's easy to criticize, but if everybody hated you, you'd be paranoid too.

Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.

For every action, there is an equal and opposite criticism.

Success always occurs in private, and failure in full view.

Two wrongs are only the beginning.

Plan to be spontaneous tomorrow.

Borrow money from pessimists -- they don't expect it back.

Deja Moo: The feeling that you've heard this bull before.
